

What Is a Chef's Market?

A Chef's Market is where restaurant-quality cuisine meets everyday convenience. At Tavolo Pronto, our Chef's Market is designed for people who love exceptional food but want the ease of enjoying it at home—without reservations, wait times, or cleanup.

Each week, our market features a rotating selection of freshly prepared entrées, appetizers, salads, and Chef specialties—all crafted from scratch using clean, high-quality ingredients. These are thoughtfully prepared meals you can take home, heat, and serve with confidence, bringing the flavor and care of a fine Italian restaurant straight to your table.

Meet Chef Joe Rayola

Chef Joe Rayola brings decades of culinary expertise, global training, and deep-rooted Italian tradition to Tavolo Pronto. He studied the art of Italian cuisine in Florence, Italy, where he immersed himself in classical techniques, regional flavors, and the philosophy of simple, honest food made with intention.

Chef Joe later served as Executive Chef at the iconic Carmine's in New York City for over a decade, where he became known for bold flavors, soulful Italian classics, and dishes meant to be shared around the table.

Today, Chef Joe brings that same heart, heritage, and craftsmanship to Myrtle Beach—creating meals that feel both elevated and comforting, familiar yet exciting.

What You'll Find in Our Chef's Market

- Scratch-made Italian entrées ready to heat and enjoy
  - Classic and seasonal appetizers
  - Fresh, thoughtfully composed salads
  - Chef-driven specialties that rotate weekly
- Family-style favorites perfect for gatherings or easy weeknight dinners

From Chef Joe's famous meatballs to beloved staples like truffle béchamel lasagna and eggplant Parmesan, every dish reflects his dedication to tradition, technique, and unforgettable flavor.
